

Wonderful words

Christian, Humanist, code for living, decisions, consequences, fairness, justice, freedom, forgiveness.

So how does it all work?

End of Unit Expectations

- Identify and explain beliefs about why people are good and bad (Christian and Humanist).
- Make links with sources of authority in the Bible (“made in the image of God” but “fallen”) and Humanists saying people can be “good without God”.
- Make clear connections between Christian and Humanist ideas about being good and how people live; suggest reasons why it might be helpful to follow a moral code and why it might be difficult, offering different points of view.
- Raise questions/suggest answers about how and why people should be good.
